LEXINGTON LIONS CLUB SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Celebrating a student who has demonstrated outstanding community service, academic achievement and leadership who truly represents the Lions Club motto "We Serve."

WHAT IS THE LEXINGTON LIONS CLUB COMMUNITY SERVICE SCHOLARSHIP?

The Lexington Lions Club Community Scholarship provides a (one time) award for a high school senior in the Fayette County High School who demonstrates outstanding community service, academic excellence, and leadership in school activities.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

High school seniors in the six Fayette County High Schools who demonstrate outstanding community service and are recommended by their high school.

HOW WILL THE WINNER BE DETERMINED?

Each application received will be reviewed by five members of the Lexington Lions Club. This evaluation will be given a grade value of 0-50 toward community service, 0-15 toward academic achievements, 0-10 toward school activities, 0-15 toward leadership, and 0-10 based on the essay. Based on these scores the top two recipients will be chosen.
